

DW164

The Golden Statue

“at the far end of the hall was a golden statue three or four times life size. It was of a slim young man, obviously a god, wearing nothing more than a hat with wings on, sandals with wings on and – Moist squinted – “” fig leaf with wings on?”

Going Postal

SCULPTOR: Joe Pattison

INTRODUCED: Summer 2005

RETIRED: October 2005

NUMBER SOLD: 221

PRICE: £32.99

TOP PRICE SINCE:

05/20