The Luggage Box

“‘Look’, said Rincewind, ‘this isn’t getting us anywhere.’ He inched sideways. The luggage followed faithfully, lid half open and menacing. Rincewind briefly considered making a desperate leap to safety. The lid smacked in anticipation.” The Colour of Magic.

The Luggage Trinket Box took pride of place at the wedding of Discworld fans Jason and Petra Roe in September 2003. Not only did he keep the two wedding rings safe while they were engaged, he had pride of place at the wedding where he helped out the ring bearer! We're told that a 'he' and 'she' luggage also adorned the top of the cake.
