Granny Weatherwax 'I ain't dead'

"Nanny had warned her about it but, even so, it was unnerving to turn up at Granny's cottage and find her...as stiff as a stick and holding, in fingers that were almost blue, a card with the words I ATE'NT DEAD. It just meant she was out in the world somewhere, seeing life through the eyes of a badger or pigeon, riding as an unheeded passenger in its mind."

Carpe Jugulum
